

Mr Filson graduated from the Faculty of Medicine of the Newcastle Upon Tyne University, with Merit and then surgically trained in the North East of England until 2011, when he moved to the world famous trauma centre, Rambam, Haifa, Israel. The majority of the workload involved the reconstruction of complex war injuries and burns from Syria, Israel and the Palestinian Territories. Due to his surgical work, patient care and junior doctor training, in 2014, he was recognised with the prestigious Excellence award, “Oved Mitztayan”. He obtained a years Fellowship in all aspects of paediatric plastic surgery from some of the world leaders at the Sick Kids Hospital, Toronto and then a Microsurgical and Breast reconstruction Fellowship from Guys and St Thomas’. Mr Filson’s is full time Consultant Plastic Surgeon at GSTT (Evelina London) with particular interests in paediatric facial reconstruction, vascular malformations and upper limb/chest wall reconstruction.